each issue (400 copies).

Expresses and Circulars in an addressed cover 25 cents per

100. The covers must be left open for inspection by the Postmaster, and addressed in Chinese as well as in English.

The contents of each cover must be alike.

Locally only.

Chinese Letters and Newspapers are chargeable with half the above rates.

STAMPS, Etc.

The following are now in use :—

Stamps } $\frac{1}{2}$ ct., 1 ct., 2 cts., 5 cts., 10 cts., 15 cts. and 20 cts.

Post Cards 1 ct., 2 cts.

Newspaper Wrappers $\frac{1}{2}$ ct., 1 ct. and 2 cts.

Stamped Envelopes 1 ct., 2 cts. and 5 cts.

DEPOSIT ACCOUNTS.

Accounts can be opened with depositors of not less than ten dollars. The depositor to be furnished with a pass book in which will be entered all mail-matter posted by him and all unpaid mail-matter delivered to him; notice being given when deposits are expended.

DIMENSIONS.

No letter, parcel or postal cover of any description shall exceed 18 inches in length, 9 inches in width and 6 inches in depth.

PARCELS.

No parcel shall exceed 6 lbs. in weight. The contents must be of a harmless nature and securely packed. The Postmaster has power to refuse to receive any parcel pending a statement of its contents. Every parcel should bear the sender's name and address, so as to facilitate the return if undelivered.

POST OFFICE NOT RESPONSIBLE.

The office is not pecuniarily responsible nor liable for losses in the mails; nor for any loss or inconvenience which may arise from the non-delivery or mis-delivery of any postal cover, nor for any injury which a packet may sustain, even in the case of registered matter; but all losses of registered or other mail-matter are carefully investigated with a view to recovering the lost article where possible, or its value when the loss is proved to be due to culpable negligence on the part of postal officials or employés.

ADDRESSES.

Every address must be legible and complete; an individual name alone is not sufficient. The street and number of house (when possible) should be given, or the "Hong" name.

Newspapers, circulars, etc., should always be addressed in Chinese as well as in English, otherwise they are liable to be delayed. When, owing to a heavy influx of mail-matter the transmission or delivery of letters would be delayed if the whole mail were dealt with indiscriminately the Postmaster has power to keep back circulars, newspapers, etc., which are not addressed in Chinese until the next despatch or delivery.

Mail-matter for residents in the interior of China should be addressed via the nearest port or place where the L. P. O. mails are delivered. For instance T'ungchow via Pekin; Tunghow via Chefoo; to Wusueh via Hankow; Wuseih via Chinkiang. The office will not be responsible for any mistakes arising from the similarity of Chinese names when this precaution is neglected.

INTERNATIONAL POSTAGE TABLE,

SHOWING THE RATES OF POSTAGE CHARGEABLE

AT THE

IMPERIAL JAPANESE POST OFFICE,

On Letters, Printed Matter, etc., sent in the Mails to Foreign Countries.

LIMIT OF WEIGHT AND DIMENSIONS.—Samples of merchandise must not exceed in weight 250 grammes, nor in dimensions, 20 centimetres in length, 10 in width and 5 in depth.
